

Can you have a go at answering these questions?

Year 1 – You should be able to answer in whole sentences and construct the whole sentence – say it – sound out the words – write it, parents you can help by writing down any tricky words for the children to copy.

Reception – Say what you want to write – parents you may want to scribe most of the sentence for your child and get them to write a few of the words, or they could answer with single words.
