

Sequencing

Putting events into chronological order

Sequencing

Can you put these events in the right order?

James checked to make sure he had spelt the words correctly.

James got out his spelling book and a pencil.

He wrote the words his teacher read out.

James listened carefully as his teacher read out the spelling words.

He opened his book and wrote the date.

Sequencing

Can you put these events in the right order?

Susie got the cake out of the oven.

She weighed out flour, sugar and butter and collected eggs from the basket.

Susie put on her apron and took out her recipe book.

She mixed the ingredients together and put the cake mixture into the oven.

Susie washed up the dirty pots while she waited for the cake to cook.

Sequencing

Can you put these events in the right order?

Daniel found the sticky tape and cut four pieces.

Daniel took out a piece of wrapping paper and the present for his mum.

He cut the paper to the right size.

Daniel gave the present to his mum on her birthday.

He wrapped the paper around the present and fastened it with the sticky tape.

Sequencing

Can you put these events in the right order?

Hope came out of the doctor's office with a sticker.

Hope waited anxiously for her name to be called.

Hope and her mum walked to the doctor's surgery.

Hope's mum told the receptionist they had arrived.

She saw her name flash up on the board.

Sequencing

Can you put these events in the right order?

He put toothpaste on his brush.

Sebastian rinsed his mouth with water.

Sebastian changed out of his pyjamas and put on his school uniform.

He brushed his teeth carefully for two minutes.

Sebastian went into the bathroom and picked up his toothbrush.

Sequencing

Can you put these events in the right order?

Andrei licked the bowl clean.

He got the ice cream from the freezer.

Andrei took a bowl out of the cupboard.

He shook sprinkles onto the ice cream.

He scooped out the ice cream into the bowl.

Sequencing

Can you put these events in the right order?

Jaz took two slices of bread from the bag and put them on a plate.

He took a big bite of the sandwich and sighed with pleasure.

He sprinkled cheese onto the lettuce.

Jaz buttered the bread and lay lettuce on one of the slices.

He put one slice on top of the other to make a sandwich.

Sequencing

Can you fill in the blank with a possible event that fits this scenario?

Every evening after school, George followed the same routine. First, he would walk home with his mum.

Then, _____

Afterwards, he would sit down and have a drink and a snack.

Sequencing

Can you fill in the blank with a possible event that fits this scenario?

George was giving his scruffy dog Rufus a bath. First, he showered Rufus with warm water, then he _____

After that, he _____ Finally, he dried Rufus off with an old towel.

Sequencing

Can you fill in the blank with a possible event that fits this scenario?

My favourite day at school is Wednesday. First, we always then we get changed for Games, and afterwards we go straight out for playtime.

_____ ,

Sequencing

Can you fill in the blank with a possible event that fits this scenario?

Every Sunday, we go to Grandma's for lunch.

When we arrive, we help to set the table, then we _____

After that, we sit together to eat our meal. Next, my brother and I _____ to help Grandma. Finally, we _____ until it is time to go home.

Sequencing

Can you explain the sequence of events to make a snowman?

twinkl.com

Sequencing

Can you explain the sequence of events to make a slice of jam on toast?

twinkl.com

Sequencing

Can you explain the sequence of events to make a cup of tea?

twinkl.com

Sequencing

Can you explain the sequence of events to

get ready for school in the morning?

Can you put these events in the right order?

twinkl.com

Sequencing

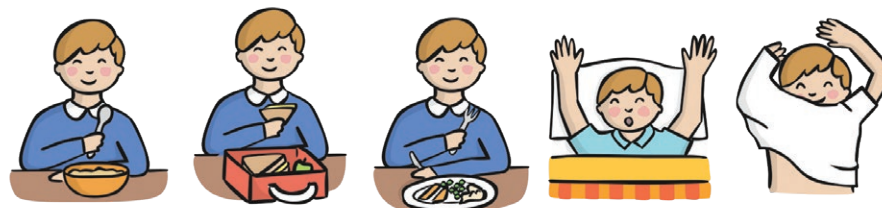

Can you sequence these pictures?

twinkl.com

Sequencing

Can you sequence these pictures?

twinkl.com

Sequencing

Can you sequence these pictures?

twinkl.com

Sequencing

Can you sequence these pictures?

twinkl.com